2019 CTASLA CONNECTICUT PROFESSIONAL AWARDS

CALL FOR ENTRIES (also at www.ctasla.org/awards)

Connecticut Chapter • American Society of Landscape Architects

Recognizing excellence in landscape architectural design, planning and analysis, communications, and research.

The Connecticut Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects invites submission of professional works to be reviewed for the 2019 Professional Awards. These distinguished awards identify, recognize, and publicize outstanding works of Connecticut landscape architecture or works in other locations by Connecticut-based practitioners.

Eligibility

Entrant(s) must be a Full or Associate member of the American Society of Landscape Architects or eligible to join ASLA in one of those categories. Additionally, either the subject project or the submitting individual/firm must be located in Connecticut. CTASLA members with an out-of-state address are also eligible. Once a project receives an award, it is only eligible for future CTASLA Professional Awards in the Landmark Legacy Category. Projects completed before January 1, 2003 are eligible for The Landmark Legacy Category.

The non-member entry fee includes a one-year membership in ASLA and the Connecticut Chapter. Non-members will be required to submit an ASLA membership application and payment of the membership fee with their entry. Non-members entering multiple projects shall pay the non-member fee for the first entry and the member fee for any additional entries. For information on membership qualifications and application form, please visit www.asla.org/join.aspx or call 1-888-999-ASLA.

Entry Categories

Projects may be entered in one of the following categories:

- Landscape Architectural Design – Built Works (subcategories include Residential, Municipal/Public Spaces, and Corporate/Institutional): Recognizes constructed, site-specific work of landscape architectural design.
- Landscape Planning and Analysis: Recognizes the wide variety of professional activity that leads to, guides, or evaluates landscape architecture, including development plans; government policies, programs and legislation; environmental analysis; and various landscape analysis. Typical entries include urban, suburban, rural, or regional planning efforts and development guidelines; transportation, town or campus planning; plans for reclamation of brownfield sites; environmental planning in relation to legislative or policy initiatives or regulatory controls; cultural resource reports; natural resources protection and historic preservation planning.
- Landscape Architectural Communication: Examines achievements in communicating landscape architectural information, technology, theory, or practice to those within and/or outside the profession.
- Landscape Architectural Research: Recognizes outstanding works of rigorous research that examines a problem related to landscape architecture and arrives at original findings or solutions of value to the profession.
- The Landmark Legacy: A distinguished landscape architecture project completed between 15 and 50 years ago that retains its original design integrity and contributes significantly to the public realm of the community.
Note: Once a project receives an award from CTASLA, it is only eligible for future Professional Awards in this category.

Entries submitted to incorrect categories will be reassigned to the correct category, with notification to the submitting firm.

General Submission Requirements

In the Landscape Architectural Design – Built Works and Landmark Legacy categories, submittal information is required in digital format, submitted via CD-ROM, flash drive, or online file transfer. In the Landscape Planning & Analysis, Landscape Architectural Communication, and Landscape Architectural Research categories, printed submissions or a website or app (application software), if applicable, are required in addition to the digital submission. An entry form is required with each submission.

The following shall be included with each entry:

1. The Entry Form with entry fee (and if applicable, the ASLA membership fee).
2. The following information, submitted by online file transfer, CD-ROM, or flash drive:
 - A. The PDF of your Jury Presentation — Using the supplied PowerPoint (or InDesign) template, complete a digital presentation including the following items (these instructions are repeated in the template):
 - 1) Cover slide: To include Project Name, Client (if appropriate), Project Location, Date of Completion, and ASLA Member/Landscape Architect's Specific Role in the Project
 - 2) Project Description: A description of your project, 250 words or less, suitable for publication (i.e., in paragraph form, and written in the "third person").
 - 2) Statement of Significance: 250 words or less describing the project's worthiness for an award, focusing on the criteria for each category.
 - 3) A minimum of 8 and no more than 15 additional slides for images, project graphics, and photographs with a brief caption (50 words maximum) for each image.

All entries must utilize the format provided in the Jury Presentation template, but you may use a different application to achieve the same results if you wish. Please save your final Jury Presentation in PDF format; file size not to exceed 15 MB. Do not include video or audio in the Jury Presentation.
 - B. An additional set of high-resolution photographs or graphic images used in the preparation of the Jury Presentation. Include 8 to 15 images with at least one plan view if appropriate. These images should be at least 300 DPI at a final size approximately equivalent to 80 square inches (i.e., 8"x 10"), or larger, and saved in CMYK mode. File format: JPG or TIF (not PDF). Note that submitted photos must be suitable for publishing by CTASLA without copyright or restriction. Copy the individual image files to the CD-ROM or flash drive, or include in your online file transfer. Include a Microsoft Word or RTF file that contains a caption of 50 words or less for all images submitted, clearly marked with image name to avoid confusion. These images will be used for publishing purposes for winning projects. Remember to set digital cameras on their highest quality setting (or largest physical print size) before taking photos for Professional Awards submissions!
3. Any other specific entry requirements for each category (see guidelines that follow).

Note: If submitting a CD-ROM or flash drive, it is the entrant's responsibility to ensure proper functionality of the disc, formatted for PC & Mac. Please write the name of the project directly on the CD or flash drive.

NOTE: The jury process is "blind" as to the identity of the entrants. All content in the Jury Presentation must have INDIVIDUAL AND/OR COMPANY NAMES REMOVED FROM ALL TEXT AND GRAPHICS. References to the identity of the entrant must be deleted from photographs, renderings, plans, captions, descriptions, and other information. The official entry form is the only instance in which individual or company names should appear.

Submission Due Date and Delivery Instructions

All entry forms, printed materials, and digital files (via online file transfer, CD-ROM or flash drive) must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 1, 2018. Send entry forms, checks, and printed materials to: CTASLA Professional Awards, 370 James St., Ste. 402, New Haven, CT 06513. For online file transfers, use www.WeTransfer.com to upload materials to awards@ctasla.org (no other online file transfer method will be accepted).

Jury

The jury will be composed of out-of-state professionals unaffiliated with CTASLA.

CTASLA Holiday Party and Announcement of Winners

Award winners will be announced at the Chapter holiday party on Wednesday, December 12, 2018 at the New Haven Lawn Club. Please join us for a festive evening of great food and socializing as we celebrate our award winners! Additional information about the evening will be available later this fall on the CTASLA website.

Consent and Publicity

All submittals become the property of the Connecticut Chapter of ASLA, to be used for promotion of the profession of landscape architecture through displays, in chapter publications, in local and national media, and on the CTASLA website and other online outlets, with credit to the submitting firm. Entry materials will not be returned.

By entering this competition you grant permission to CTASLA to reproduce the submitted images. Entrants are solely responsible for securing authorization for CTASLA's usage from the client and photographers allowing the entry to be submitted, judged, and promoted through displays, online, in chapter publications, and in other media outlets, with credit to the submitting firm. Do not send authorizations or photo releases with your entry; keep for your records. Your signature on the submitted entry form authorizes CTASLA to use all submitted images for promotion of the profession of landscape architecture as described above. CTASLA will assume no responsibility for failure to obtain photo releases.

All winning entrants are requested to submit a digital 24" x 36" presentation board of their project by February 1, 2019, to be used for exhibits and other display purposes to promote the profession and our award winners. The board should show plans, color photographs and/or renderings with explanatory captions. Board should contain at least one plan view and should include the name of the entrant's firm in the lower right corner, as well as the category and award level achieved. A template will be provided to award winners by CTASLA.
