

Tour and Program at Connecticut College Arboretum Wednesday, June 7, 2006

Come walk in the Arboretum, tour the native plant collection and hear Glenn Dreyer, Director of the Arboretum, speak on “New Perspectives in Ecological Land Management.”

- 5:00 p.m. Early Bird Arrival
- 5:00-5:45 A walk in the Caroline Black International Peace Garden
- 6:00 Meet at the Arboretum main gate
- 6:00-7:00 Tour the Native Plant Collection at the Connecticut College Arboretum
- 7:00-8:30 Box Dinner at Buck Lodge and a Talk by Glenn Dreyer, followed by Q&A

Subject material approved for CEU credits for landscape architects. To learn more about the Arboretum, see: www.conncoll.edu/ccrec/greenet/arbo/plant.html.

COST — $25/ASLA Members • $30/Non-Members
$15/Students (with student ID)

Name _____

Company _____

Email _____

Phone _____

Make check payable to “CTASLA” and mail for receipt by June 5 to: Whitney Talcott, Post Box 4027, Old Lyme, CT 06371

OR register online (by June 6) at www.ctasla.org using your credit card.

Questions? Send email to walcott@kba-architects.com or call Whitney Talcott at (860) 434-8965.

For more information about our presenter, please see www.ctasla.org.

Directions to the Connecticut College Arboretum Williams St., New London, CT

From I-95 North, take exit 83. Turn left at the end of the ramp and follow Williams Street through the first traffic light and up a short hill. The entrance to the Native Plant Collection is on the left, directly across the street from the Connecticut College entrance at Harkness Chapel. Look for the double wrought iron gates with large golden leaves.

To reach the Caroline Black Garden, cross the Connecticut College campus and exit the main entrance of the College. Turn left onto Route 32, and take a right at the first light at the College Athletic Center, and an immediate right onto Winchester Road. Take a right at the first driveway into the parking lot behind the Career Services building.

From I-95 South, take exit 84 North to Route 32 north. To reach the Caroline Black Garden, turn right at the Connecticut College Athletic Center, the third light, and take an immediate right onto Winchester Road, and a right at the first driveway into the parking lot.

From 395 South, take exit 78, which is a left lane exit, to New London. Follow Route 32 south for 2.6 miles. To visit the Native Plant Collection, turn right at the sixth traffic light into the main Connecticut College entrance. Cross the campus and exit the back entrance onto William’s Street at Harkness Chapel. The main entrance to the Arboretum is directly across the street.

Parking: When visiting the Native Plant Collection, cars may park on Williams Street if space is available. Alternate parking is in the South Parking Lot on the main campus. Visitors must obtain a parking permit from the guard house at the main entrance of the College. When visiting the Caroline Black Garden, 4-5 cars can usually fit in the parking lot behind Career Services off of Winchester Road.