Connecticut Chapter of ASLA Announces 2016 Professional Award Winners

The Connecticut Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects (CTASLA) has announced the winners of its annual Connecticut Professional Awards competition. CTASLA conducts the awards competition each year to recognize excellence in landscape architectural design, planning and analysis, communication, and research. To be eligible, an applicant must be a landscape architect or designer in the state of Connecticut, and the entrant or project location must be based in Connecticut.

"These award-winning projects showcase the incredible talents of Connecticut landscape architects," said Barbara Yaeger, president of CTASLA and principal of B.Yaeger, LLC, of Madison, CT. "Our members design beautiful spaces that encourage people to get outside, explore their surroundings, and interact with other members of the community; simultaneously, they are stewards of the land, protecting natural resources, creating habitat, and helping the world address such concerns as climate change."

Winners of the 2016 Connecticut ASLA Professional Awards competition include:
